Customer Reviews

This is the first book by Matthew Lee that I have read. So I don't have the perspective on the body of his work that others do. Let me say that this work plays into that element within erotic literature that I find most enjoyable. I love to read about persons who become progressively more committed to sex, such that their sexual core comes to dominate their personality and their vision of life. These persons come to almost exclusively pursue sex for the physical and psychological pleasures that it provides them, and not at all for reasons of love. (Though of course they could express their love of someone thru sex, it's just that the love and sex are not tied to each other.) Sex with a friend, neighbor, or new acquaintance soon becomes a frequent activity, as all inhibitions drop away. Many stories in erotic literature stop when the person has just made the conversion to this sexual life. But the best stories, as this one, follow the individuals as more and more extreme sex propels them to explore and enjoy new and pleasurable kinks, formerly hidden in their libidos, but now given free rein. If that is what you like about erotica, then you'll love this book. Alex and Erin provide us with a boatload of sexual kinks and desires, including cuckoldry, BDSM, and profound need to submit sexually. And we get to enjoy their journey into total debauchery. Lee does an outstanding job of making their characters very believable, and the plot is close enough to plausible, so that we don't care about some gaps in it, as the sex just gets more and more intense. Lee writes some very hot sex scenes. The final sex scene is unparalleled for sexual strength.
