Customer Reviews

For students struggling with Shakespeare, or the play Hamlet in particular, this book will prove extremely enlightening and useful. It consists of numerous short, very informative articles, written by noted literary scholars or experts on the play, among them R.A. Foakes, Marvin Rosenberg, Rebebbba West, and even the great Shakespearean actor Laurence Olivier himself. The editor, Don Nardo, provides an excellent introductory article that sums up Shakespeare and his times, and also a generous bibliography that will give students plenty of supplementary material to look for.
