Customer Reviews

This book is enjoyable just to look at and a great reference book for any Fenton collector. I received the book thru and am completely satisfied with my purchase. It is good just for a past time book to read as well as a nice reference book. It was nice and clean, looks like it just came right from the publisher.

it speaks for itself. a great resource book to have on hand for those that collect milk glass missing some of the productions, but over all a good source of information

Good reference book
