Customer Reviews

This book brings back so many memories of my childhood. I read it when I was ten or so.

Anderson's vivid descriptions of his adventures in the Indian jungle are classic. You can almost see him in his post colonial hunting garb and hear his British accent as you read this text. His style is a bit old fashioned, but fun. As a kid, this book really added to my vocabulary. It's a fun trip back in time.

I love stories like these. If I remember correctly, there were a few editing/spelling problems with the kindle version. But, they were minor compared the the "ripping good yarns".

A timeless novel of Shangri-La which provides far more detail for the reader's imagination than can be captured by the excellent 1930's film. Well worth the purchase and read!

Great yarns of an India long gone

Anderson rivals Corbett.
