Louder Than Words: A Straight To Gay Romance

Synopsis

One text is all it takes to send Nick on the longest roller coaster ride of his life. Nick Torres is known for two things: his poor taste in women and how heâ€™d do anything for his friends. So when his date is interrupted by a frantic text from his best friend Joel, he doesnâ€™t think twice about rushing to his side. Nick insists itâ€™s not personal, but why when given a choice, would he rather hang with Joel over anyone else? Out of all the challenges Joelâ€™s faced, falling for his best friend shouldnâ€™t be one of them. Joelâ€™s had a mad crush on Nick ever since the second grade, and itâ€™s becoming even harder to ignore now that theyâ€™re live-in roommates. Crippled with severe anxiety, the only interactions Joelâ€™s had over the last eleven months include a LGBT forum heâ€™s a part of as well as the bit of time he gets to spend with Nick. So when Nick suggests inviting one of his forum friends over on a date, Joel figures itâ€™s just the distraction he needs from the man he can never have. Nick would do anything to get the old Joel back, but he never expected that in order to do so heâ€™d have to give up his heart. Can he get a handle on his emotions and convince Joel heâ€™s more than just a friend, or will a knee-jerk reaction be enough to end their friendship for good? Louder Than Words is a steamy friends-to-lovers gay romance of approximately 31,000 words, with an HEA and no cliffhangers.

Customer Reviews

I was given this book as an ARC in exchange for a honest review. When I began I had no ideal what to expect. I was shocked by this sudden violence. This was my second Friends to Lovers story in a row. Each author using very different storylines to tell how bests friends made the transition to become each other's everything. This is a story about a very real disorder â " Social Anxiety. Making the one suffering a sad, terrified, anxious mess. Afraid of so much he can not live a normal life. PTSD has led to Joel being confined to his home, or rather the home of his best friend Nick Torres. Joel has such a severe case he suffers from nightmares, anxiety attacks, and cold sweats at just the thought of leaving the Apartment, even for something as simple as getting the mail from the lobby boxes necessitating being in the hallway causes panic, nausea, and dizziness. He has no life and is afraid he's too much of a burden to his best friend. Meanwhile Nick repeatedly strikes out with the women he dates. This didn't just begin happening when Joel came to live with him. It had been going on well before then. Causing more than one woman to say, "You care more about Joel then you do me". These women got very annoyed when Nick kept checking up on Joel while Nick was out on dates with them. These behaviors multiplied after the terrible incident. Nick felt very protective of Joel. An older widowed woman who lived down the hall has been very helpful to both Nick and Joel. She spent a lot of time talking to Joel through the door when Nick was at work. But there are times when Joel is in such a panic he has to contact Nick, usually by text, through sometimes panic Severe Anxiety induced phone calls. Joel knows he can count on Nick to be there for him.
