Customer Reviews

I hold interfaith devotions at my home, so I'm always looking for helpful materials. This little book offers selections from many faiths. Would be a good read for anyone interested in religion or spirituality.

All the world's major religions are represented. It's a good book for my family for two reasons. First, to see we have far more in common than we think. And there's much to learn from one another.

Second, it's a nice book to offer if one does any inter-faith work or in times of tragedy to have neighbors over and read up lifting and comforting passages.

There truly is a great deal of common ground among the major religions. This book gives us a glimpse of a few (7) of the common principals.
