Roulette For The Casual Gambler

Synopsis

Roulette for the Casual Gambler provides a starting point for the novice, guiding the new roulette player toward an understanding of how to design your own betting strategy. It contains charts of over 2,700 authentic roulette spins (at casinos, not machine-generated) against which you can test your own strategies. The goal is to give the casual gambler a better shot at winning, or at least holding losses to a minimum.

Customer Reviews

Unlike many books in the gambling genre Roulette For the Casual Gambler gives solid, hands on kind of advice without the promise of large $$$$ returns. A pleasant surprise in the book were the pages about slots, sports betting, bingo and lotteries. Plus insights on how to approach the casino scene in general. More experienced roulette players will find as I did the roulette charts in the back of the book a great tool for researching roulette based on actual results. (It saved me a lot of time)
