I just finished Volume 2 of Monster Musume: I Heart Monster Girls. While I liked Volume 1 a little better, this is still a good collection with various writers and artists offering their interpretations of the cast. Mero gets a couple of nice pieces playing up her fascination with tragic love stories; there is a hilarious one regarding her imagining a yaoi romance at an aquarium (the look on her face in the final panel is priceless). The MON Squad also has some funny stories, particularly a tale regarding a barbeque gone wrong. Another is a one page gem as Zombina goes on and on about movie monsters. Manako seems to be a favorite of these contributors but I wish Doppel would get a chance to carry a story; at least she is given some good scenes and makes the most of them. I was not so enthused with a story about Kimihito becoming a tentacled carnal beast; it was a bit over the top. I much preferred "Yearning for the Stars", with the gang going stargazing and his observations about their little family; Rachnee thought them saccharine, but most fans will think otherwise. As with Volume 1, this volume includes postcards; these feature Suu, Mero and Rachnee.

Whether you're a die-hard monster musume fan or just simply enjoy them, I'd highly recommend giving the I Heart MONster Girls side stories a shot. They pretty much have what makes the main story enjoyable, just with a special addition of a different art style for every side story illustrated by a different artist each.

I love how each person makes their own short story based off of the main one. To me I fell like it seems to flesh the series out more can't wait to read the next one and see what style they use.

Just wow just receive it today and I read the manga already and just wow very nice and interesting.
