This is a great story about the kidnap experience of 3 Americans held for many years in the jungles of Colombia. We watched this story closely as it unfolded in real time. Several members of our family played a part in trying to get these Americans released. This story in Spanish does not quite seem to jibe with the first person stories told by the individuals involved. However, the whole release is shrouded in mystery and much of the story as well. It is much more gripping than any novel whether you read it in Spanish or in English.

PerdÃ­ mi tiempo y mi dinero. CreÃ­ que irÃ­a a hallar un relato lleno de historias insospechadas, pero al final concluÃ­ que se trataba de una manipulaciÃ³n de hechos reales y de sacrificios de los soldados, para favorecer la imagen polÃ­tica y las desmedidas ambiciones polÃ­ticas de Juan Manuel Santos, quien como jugador de poquer, sabe mucho de tramas y argucias, pero no de lealtad con quienes le aseguraron avanzar en la posibilidad de ser presidente luego de pasar por el ministerio de defensa. Esto no es un libro sino una cartilla de elogios a un jefe que tuvo que haberle pagado muy bien al periodista Torres, sin olvidar que Santos es uno de los dueÃ±os de la empresa editorial que publicÃ³ este documento. Blanco es gallina lo pone.... NO LO RECOMIENDO.

Muy bien escrito, parece una historia de ciencia ficcion. Algunos capitulos me hizo poner la piel de gallina y algunas veces me sente y llore.Lo unico malo es que esta escrito de una forma no objetiva, el ministro Santos le propuso a Juan Carlos Torres escribir el libro. Entonces por supuesto el libro habla extremadamente bien de toda la jerarquia Colombiana.Es muy emotivo leerse este libro a la misma vez que el libro de los Americanos.

A good book on all the preparations and intelligence involved in operation Jaque. Interesting from the beginning to the end. My only objection is the edition, poor paper quality and black and white photos.
