Customer Reviews

The meals inside this cooking book are tasty and nutritious. This cookbook contain Top class delicious and easy recipes. Each recipe is accompanied by a captivating photo of the final dish. Ingredients are easy to follow and easily available in the market. Measurements of the ingredients are precise. Directions for each of the recipe is very easy to follow. From me, I highly recommend this cooking book.

My husband is of Polish ethnicity and I ordered the book in hopes of surprising him with some good old home food. Alas, he said not to bother, but I notice he is enjoying time reading the recipes and talking of how they related to his youth. Maybe one day I'll surprise him with a dish or two.

Lily Auldren has gathered a varied number of Polish dishes - those kinds of dishes that look like they take all day to prepare - but here she has created tasty dishes that take less time and provide healthy and delicious results. Just start cooking them from these simple recipes Auldren provides and watch the appetites soar. The truly delicious meals featured in this tempting cook book include Polish Dill Pickle Soup, Lazy Stuffed Cabbage Casserole, Pork Chops, Polish Jam Kolaches, Sausage and Sauerkraut Pot, Zesty Zucchini Sticks, Pickled Beets, Potato Kielbasa Skillet, Twice Baked Potato Casserole, Stuffed Cabbage Rolls, Polish Appetizer, Polish Noodles and Cabbage, Ham and Au Gratin Potatoes, Polish Rum Balls, Iced Coffee Polish Style to mention just a few. All ingredients, directions and even images of the finished product are proffered for your delight and temptation. Treat yourself with these easy to prepare exotic sounding Polish dishes. And you won't have to search for the local eatery outside your home! Grady Harp, November 13

These recipes are not authentic Polish food, they lack ingredients, they are just weird. They may sound Polish to someone who has never had Polish food, but they are far from being authentic. I'm so glad I downloaded the book for free so I didn't waste any money on it.

The recipes just don't seem authentic. Americanized watered down versions. The writing seems a bit off. Like it's choppy or something.
