Customer Reviews

In this next book, we continue to see the story of Lucy's and Aiden's friendship grow. Lucy has managed to keep her feelings for Aiden well hidden over the years, including when she first started to develop her feelings. But now that her roommate won't back down telling her that she needs to fess up, will she be willing to put everything on the line. After Lucy leaves Aiden after cutting his hair for him her head starts to go into overdrive due to the fact that back when she was washing his hair there was a moment between them two but she thinks that Aiden didn't notice it when in fact he did. Lucy has no idea what to do with her head or her feelings because her heart honestly felt something and she doesn't want to be set up for heartbreak because she values his friendship way too much. Aiden starts thinking about his relationship with his girlfriend, he knows that he is really sweet when it comes to girls and will offer to give them anything they ask for but he's not so sure now when he notices that his girlfriend only cares about her job and appearance. He knows that she has to be careful of what she eats but he really is starting to worry because she hardly eats anything at all and when he mentions this to her she thinks that he's against her. He knows something is up when he happens to find a piece of her black underwear pushed into the couch, but he knows for a fact that she hasn't worn this pair in a few weeks as this is her set for when she wants to have fun with the opposite sex, he also has noticed that recently she has been going to volunteer at the old people's home where her nan lives, so he's not sure if she's telling the truth or not.
