Customer Reviews

I already had a copy of this book on computer but wanted a hard copy incase someone wanted to know about Unitarian Christianity. This book will clearly explain it and it's inexpensive so I can simply give it to them and easily purchase another to have ready to give if need be.

A Perfect introduction to Unitarian Christianity. I highly recommend this title if you want a clear and tongue in cheek essay on the topic.

This is a small, but excellent, primer for an introduction to 19th century - and beyond - Unitarian Christianity. It has little to do with the "Unitarian Universalist" church of today, so don't expect an 'even a doorknob can be your higher power' sort of theology. I recommend this book to friends often, and recommend it to my cohorts as well.

Insight on the teachings of William Ellery Channing one of the earliest Unitarian ministers. Offers persuasive argument against the trinity.
