Winter Magic: An Urban Fantasy Novel (Ice And Flame Book 1)

Synopsis

Between college and her part-time job, Faye Winter has enough on her plate. When she is forced to look after her ten-year-old niece, Amy, she makes do as best she can. Living together, Faye quickly realizes that Amy is a very special child as strange magical phenomena begin to occur in her apartment. With fire-hurling strangers hunting them, a mysterious man who claims to only want to help, Faye and Amy must rely on each other to stay alive, to save themselves, and possibly, the world.

Customer Reviews

Enjoyable read with an interesting twist on magical powers. That's why I'm giving it a five, because it's not the same old story. It would be fun to get to know the characters more, hopefully in the next books. The plot moved along quickly, which is great. Otoh, it could have been fleshed out a bit more and still moved along nicely. It's a good story with lots of new directions, made me read it all at once. Can't wait for the next book!

The story had a good plot not one I have read about, good job! Strong story about a young woman who has taken charge of her ten year old niece whom she has never met. The niece start exhibiting some freaky powers that neither one knows anything about. Great secondary characters. Cannot wait to see what Logan is about he sounds too good to be true!!!

Definitely some weak points with the plot, but overall an enjoyable, albeit too quick, of a read. Would have preferred a little more character development, but I'll look forward to book 2

I love urban fantasy and this story did not disappoint. Interesting story line and take on magic and demons. Can't wait for the next book!

The concept is interesting. I could find nothing wrong with the spelling or grammar. It would interesting to find out more of the backstory. about Kdenneth and Khael stealing days.
