Customer Reviews

Very scary true paranormal read! I have always wondered how the paranormal investigators are able not to bring home something, but they probably do more than you think, but they just don't write about it - this was about a 2 hour read - very detailed information - makes you feel like you are there - the author really pulls you into the story - it is too bad that the real paranormal investigator of this story had to endure the demonic entity by herself and to have it attack her family - if she had the help of a demonologist, she probably could have been rid of the entity and still had a place to live - this book makes you think twice about messing with the paranormal - this was definitely a 5 star read!

Chilling story of a lady who did ghost hunting type stuff and something followed her back to her house on two occasions. Ugh.

Good read. Keeps you on the edge of your seat. Ending was a let down and could have used more details.
