Mountain Biking California's Central Coast Best 100 Trails

Synopsis

From the dramatic cliffs of Big Sur to the palm-lined beaches of Santa Barbara, California's central coast offers everything the mountain bike enthusiast could want: sun, scenery and miles of cycling-perfect roads and trails. Fully illustrated with maps and photographs, this comprehensive guidebook details over 100 routes in the area's best state parks, national forest lands and other open spaces. Includes classic routes, new routes, and never before documented routes that will take you to the best spring wildflowers, hidden Chumash rock art, waterfalls, lookouts, and other surprises.

Customer Reviews

Great, a little out dated, but great for starting planing or looking at a new area to go adventure in.

Ive used this book several times when i visit my folks in central coast california. Its come in handy and ive discovered quite a few great trails with its assistance. Cant complain.

I'm not sure why I bought this.... but it was a good book. I don't bike. The photos are pretty. If I was a biker I would use these trails.
